

Public Disability History Award

Did you complete a public disability history project in the last two years? Was it a community-anchored or community-led project designed with physical and programmatic accessibility in mind?

Apply now to win an award sponsored by the Disability History Association. Membership in DHA is not required.

Visit our web site \(http://dishist.org/?page_id=1230\) to learn more about project criteria.

Submit a cover letter, project description, and other supporting materials such as media coverage to Nicole Belolan, Award Chair and Disability History Association Secretary, by January 14, 2022, at nbelolan@gmail.com. Questions about the application process are welcome and encouraged. Award will be announced in February or March 2022.
